

COURSE INFORMATION SHEET

JAMAICA URBAN IMMERSION

On-site portion of class

January 30 -February 6, 2026

Online portion of class

January 1, 2026 – March 31, 2026

The Immersion's theme, Nurturing Shalom in the City, examines the historical context that informs the nation's strength, courage, and challenges through the lens of BGU's eight Leadership Perspectives. The Immersion will build on the participants' inner spiritual formation while providing practical insights for their call to be agents of transformation.

We explore the Island's enchanting beauty, its challenges, and the role of Christ-centered leaders in government, religious, for-profit, and non-profit organizations. Our site visits will include the scenic beauty of the gardens, the Island's famous waterfall, and the complex, harsh reality of city life. We will sit with an incarnational leader who moved his office into the slums and re-vision a community made popular as the home of Bob Marley. Our journeys will include a visit to the Missionaries of the Poor, where the abandoned and homeless are cared for, echoing BGU's Shalom and Incarnational Leadership Perspectives.

Students To-Do List

Welcome to Kingston, Jamaica... Greetings from Dr. McKenzie! I am honored to serve as your POR for this Immersion. We are so glad that you have chosen to take this course and go on this extraordinary learning experience with us. Here is a summary of all of the preparation steps you'll have to take to get ready for our wonderful learning experience together:

1. You will make your own air and ground arrangements.

You may contact the Logistics Coordinator, Nathalia Mighty (nathalia.mighty@bgu.edu), to assist you with hotel reservations. Note: We highly recommend that you make your reservation at the Terra Nova All Suite, 17 Waterloo Rd. Kingston Jamaica. The hotel has contracted to provide a free meeting space for all 10 days. We will depart from this location for all tours and visits, meet here daily for Spiritual Formation, and have several lectures and classroom activities hosted here. It would be most convenient if you would stay at this location.

If you choose another hotel or location, you will be responsible for your own transportation to this location to catch the bus or van for the day's site visits.

2. Once you have secured your air travel, please email Nathalia Mighty (nathalia.mighty@bgu.edu) with the following:

- Due to flight schedules and the uncertainty of air travel these days, you should plan to arrive in Kingston, Jamaica, on January 30, by midday.
