

Be a Beacon of Engagement: Join BGU's Alumni Regional Representatives

A rope is made up of individual strands tightly intertwined, people from diverse parts of the world who unite in a common cause, forming a bond that is stronger and more resilient when they work together. When people from different backgrounds, cultures, and regions come together, they create a powerful force, much like the rope's intertwined strands, capable of achieving remarkable goals and overcoming any obstacles that stand in their way. In this unity, they find strength, support, and a shared purpose that transcends geographical boundaries, demonstrating that when we collaborate, we can achieve extraordinary things together.

As graduates of Bakke Graduate University, we, like that rope, share an intertwined bond and a commitment to the advancement of our alma mater. While our academic years may have come to an end, our journey with BGU continues through the Alumni Association. We challenge you to take on an extraordinary way to contribute to the BGU community and foster connections among fellow alumni. Become an Alumni Regional Representative.

BGU's Alumni Regional Representatives play a vital role in connecting and engaging alumni worldwide. Their mission is multi-faceted, with the overarching goal of strengthening the alumni community and enhancing their connection with the university.

Here are the key roles of an Alumni Regional Representative:

- Engaging Alumni: Regional Representatives are the linchpin of alumni engagement in their respective regions. They serve as ambassadors of BGU, reaching out to fellow alumni and encouraging their participation in alumni events, activities, and initiatives. By fostering a sense of community, Regional Representatives help alumni stay connected to their alma mater, even from afar.
- Personal Outreach: Effective communication is at the heart of their role. Regional Representatives use various means, such as emails, personal messages, postal mail, texts, or other electronic channels, to connect with alumni in their regions. Whether it's sending updates on university news, event invitations, or simply checking in to see how they're doing, personal outreach ensures that alumni feel valued and engaged.
- Alumni Association Involvement: Another critical aspect of their role is to engage every alumnus in their region with the larger Alumni Association. By fostering connections within the alumni network, Regional Representatives help alumni discover the benefits of being a part of BGU's Alumni Association, from networking opportunities to access to resources and services.

For a detailed description of the Alumni Regional Representative position, including specific responsibilities and expectations, you can visit BGU's Alumni Network page. There, you'll find comprehensive information to help you understand the role better.

Becoming an Alumni Regional Representative is not just an opportunity to give back to your university; it's a chance to make a meaningful impact on the BGU alumni community in your region. By connecting with fellow alumni, you help create a strong and vibrant network that benefits everyone involved.

BGU's Alumni Regional Representatives play a pivotal role in fostering connections, engagement, and a sense of belonging among our global alumni community. By taking on this role, you not only contribute to the growth and prosperity of your alma mater but also create lasting connections and memories with fellow alumni. Join us in this exciting endeavor and be a part of the BGU Alumni Association's mission to strengthen the bond between alumni and the university we hold dear.

If you're ready to take on this exciting endeavor and become a beacon of alumni engagement, we encourage you to reach out to one of the following BGU Alumni Association officers:

- Leroy Hurt, President, leroyh@bgu.edu
- Marlene Hines, Vice President, bgualumni@gmail.com
- Caroloretta Tucker, Secretary-Treasurer, caroloretta@sbcglobal.net